WANTED

Della Kitessen

Della Kitessen

OCCUPATION

PROPRIETOR OF "DELLA'S CALF-A."

DESCRIPTION

This grey-haired matron is sole proprietor of "Della's Calf-A," a down-home diner in Grubville, Missouri. As customers rarely come there to eat anymore, the eatery now serves mostly as the Sandiego gang's Midwestern headquarters. Della's life of crime began when she was required to defend herself against the 86 food poisoning cases now pending against her. Most observers believe Della will overcome her present legal difficulties, as the blue-eyed entrepreneur is a known street-fighter from way back. For inspiration, Ms. Kitessen constantly watches her videotape of Muhammed Ali's championship bouts. She has a stable of agitated armadillos, trained to attack any and all unannounced guests, including county health inspectors.
